(F0522) NFA Executive Skills Series: Exercising Leadership Ethically18-017

Dates: March 10-11, 2018

Location: Central Mat-Su Emergency Services
Wasilla, Alaska

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This new two-day course provides students with the ability to recognize ethical dilemmas in the context of their environments, apply a decision model to resolve these dilemmas, render ethical decisions, and defend under scrutiny the resulting decisions that were made in an effort to resolve these dilemmas.

TARGET AUDIENCE:

The primary target audience is fire and emergency service personnel in positions of authority (executive level officers) who have an opportunity to exercise leadership. Note: Participants must be minimally assigned to a supervisory level position (for example, a Company Officer).

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES:

Course materials will be provided to registered students at the beginning of class. 100% attendance and participation is required. The student or his/her sponsoring agency is responsible for all costs for transportation, food and lodging.

Each student needs to obtain a Student Identification Number (SID) prior to attending a NFA course. Please follow the link for more information:
